

The Brian McLaren Lectures

Wisdom and Courage for a World Falling Apart

Saturday, May 11, 2024
Wesley-Knox United Church
London, Ontario

As we face the realities of climate change and related ecological crises, and grapple with political and social instability, many of us feel overwhelmed and wonder how to respond. In these interactive lectures based on his new book, Life After Doom: Wisdom and Courage for a World Falling Apart, and his 2022 book Do I Stay Christian, author, activist and public theologian Brian McLaren will explore the complex relationship between Christian faith and its host civilization, and how robust spiritual practice and a vibrant faith community can help people face possible futures, engage in a constructive and sustaining hope, and live from love rather than fear, denial or anger. Brian will examine four scenarios for the years ahead, anticipate some rough air, and imagine safe landings on the other side of this time of transition.

Saturday Schedule

9:30 am: Lecture 1 – Why Worlds Fall Apart

11:15 am: Lecture 2 – Minding your Mind—in Community
Lunch break

2 pm: Lecture 3 – Flight Plans, Rough Air and Soft Landings

Pricing

- Saturday in-person lectures $75
- Optional lunch $25
- Zoom participation $30

Life After Doom...

For full information and registration, plus a link to Brian McLaren's May 10 lecture at the University of Guelph, visit www.wesleyknox.com

Wesley-Knox United Church
91 Askin Street
London, Ontario N6C 1E7
www.wesleyknox.com

Proud Media Sponsor

Broadview
SPIRITUALITY, JUSTICE AND ETHICAL LIVING

